

Performance Indicator: Number of children aged 15 and under in on and off-site organised educational sessions

Institution	2007-08 Outturn
British Museum	243,155
Imperial War Museum	315,579
Museum of London	101,348
National Maritime Museum	127,160
National Museum of Science and Industry	962,715 (The Science Museum in South Kensington received 372,460 of these visits)
Natural History Museum	339,646
Victoria and Albert Museum	171,200

*PI introduced in 2002-03: figures for previous years not available.
Figures prior to 2006-07 include children over 16 in full-time education.*

As a percentage of all visits to the museums

Institution	2007-08 Outturn
British Museum	4
Imperial War Museum	16
Museum of London	24
National Maritime Museum	7
National Museum of Science and Industry	21 (Child education visits to the Science Museum in South Kensington make up 14% of their total visitors)
Natural History Museum	9
Victoria and Albert Museum	7

As a percentage of all child visits to the museums

Institution	2007-08 Outturn
British Museum	33
Imperial War Museum	57
Museum of London	80
National Maritime Museum	34
National Museum of Science and Industry	72 (42% of all child visits to the Science Museum at South Kensington, through these education sessions)
Natural History Museum	27
Victoria and Albert Museum	46

On site visits only

Institution	2007-08 Outturn
British Museum	240,460
Museum of London	98,017
National Museum of Science and Industry	869,273 (302,900 of these to the Science Museum in South Kensington)
Victoria and Albert Museum	169,500

off-site visits only

Institution	2007-08 Outturn
British Museum	2,695
Museum of London	12,459
National Museum of Science and Industry	93,442 (69,560 to the Science Museum in South Kensington)
Victoria and Albert Museum	1,700